MORE THAN A SUMMER PLACE
Enjoy Chautauqua year-round with a week or weekend stay in one of our cozy cottages. Experience 48 miles of forested hiking trails through the Flatirons, bypass winter traffic and ski Eldora. And after a day of play, indulge in a sunset dinner at the 111-year-old Dining Hall. Colorado Chautauqua provides an exceptional setting for small retreats and meetings, private parties and intimate weddings and anniversary celebrations. We offer charming venues in our beautifully restored, Craftsman-style, Missions House Lodge and Community House. And we are conveniently located within a mile of Pearl Street, the University of Colorado and the Federal Labs. Please visit www.chautauqua.com for details or call Private Events at 303.442.3282 x618

OUR COTTAGES
With 58 enchanting private cottages to choose from, ranging in size from studios to three-bedrooms, all with modern, fully-equipped kitchens and a porch, you'll have a difficult time deciding on the view: city lights or the Flatirons? When you want to host a special occasion, or life events like reunions or wedding-parties, the Missions House Lodge with eight bedroom/bath suites is the perfect solution. Choose a different cottage every season with hand-selected furnishings, queen beds, relaxing sofas and comfortable chairs. See the cottages at www.chautauqua.com.

OUR KITCHEN
The Chautauqua dining hall, built in 1898, is a favorite must-visit among tourists and Boulder locals. Dine under the summer or wraparound porch in the summer or enjoy the tranquil winter landscape while eating savory, classic American cuisine. Open for breakfast, lunch, dinner and Sunday brunch year-round. On Auditorium concert nights, the Dining Hall will provide light food and refreshments including beer and wine at the Picnic Pavilion. And to-go Picnic Boxes may be ordered in advance online at www.dininghall.net or call 303.440.3776.

BOULDER/DENVER'S ONLY NATIONAL HISTORIC LANDMARK
The Colorado Chautauqua is one of only a few remaining chautauquas in the US and is the only site of the Mississippi that has been in continuous operation since its founding and with its original structures intact. Now 111 years old, it continues to exemplify its original ideals: learning for all, uplifting entertainment and useful leisure in a natural and inspiring setting. Colorado Chautauqua Association is a 501 C3 non-profit with a mission to preserve, perpetuate and improve the site and spirit of the historic Chautauqua.

BE A STEWARD OF CHAUTAUQUA - BE A CHAUNTER TODAY
Your financial contribution will ensure a successful second century for Chautauqua. Your membership aids us in maintaining the traditional chautauqua values of lifelong learning, love of nature, voluntary simplicity, and music, oration and the arts. With more than 50,000 annual visitors your support will help us with our improvement and programming goals.
