

ESCAPE, ENGAGE, ELEVATE

ANNUAL REPORT 2017

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Colorado Chautauqua Association is to preserve, perpetuate and improve the site and spirit of the historic Chautauqua by enhancing its community and values through cultural, educational, social and recreational experiences.

STATEMENT OF VALUES

The Chautauqua experience is based on lifelong learning, love of nature, voluntary simplicity, and music, oration and the arts. Historic significance, traditions, cultural relevance, respite and enrichment are among the community benefits provided by the Colorado Chautauqua.

DEAR FRIENDS,

As I write this and 2017 has receded into memory, I am happy to report on behalf of the board that the Colorado Chautauqua Association completed the year successfully—not only financially, but culturally, intellectually and with progress toward preservation of physical place and spirit of place. Achievements of the past year have enhanced the staying power of this place and spirit, with much attention paid to making it vital and relevant in the 21st century and beyond.

For the first time since 2002, the association purchased a cottage that came up for private sale. The Galey Cottage represents an extraordinarily important part of Chautauqua’s history. Not only did generations of Galeys live and grow in that house, but Mary Galey, the author of “The Grand Assembly,” the official history of Chautauqua, was instrumental in saving Chautauqua when it was at risk of failing in the 1970s. This contributing structure to the National Historic Landmark will provide more public access to the Chautauqua experience.

Perhaps the most significant decision of the year was the appointment of Shelly Benford as Executive Director, dropping the “interim” that preceded her title for several months. Shelly and the CCA staff worked tirelessly all last year to enhance the institution in a preview of what an extraordinary team they promise to become.

This year marks Chautauqua’s 120th anniversary. While reviewing historic photographs to commemorate this 2018 milestone, I was struck by how little has changed of the essential core of the place and its people. Corsets are gone, thank goodness—and tents have long given way to sturdy cottages with actual plumbing. But I bet the special aura and essence are much the same.

For that, we owe a debt of gratitude to the Texas teachers who saw in Boulder the potential to build a community that would eventually become what is arguably the finest continuously operating example of the chautauqua movement. We also owe a debt of gratitude to the citizens of Boulder who in 1898, even before the existence of a local parks system, demonstrated incredible foresight by approving bonds to purchase the land that would eventually be the site of a National Historic Landmark—an enduring physical and cultural resource for the city, the region and the nation.

The “Chautauquan” newsletter of 1898 reported that “The Chautauqua is a moral, intellectual and physical restaurant, run on the a-la-carte plan.” It is remarkable tribute to the founders, and to all those who have contributed over the past 12 decades, that I am able invite you to join us in celebrating the Colorado Chautauqua’s 120th anniversary this summer. Please enjoy this enduring and vibrant cultural, educational and recreational “a-la-carte plan” as we embark on the next 120 years of this marvelous institution.

Sincerely,

Cindy Schmidt

Cindy Schmidt
President, Board of Directors
Colorado Chautauqua Association

TO ALL THE FRIENDS OF CHAUTAUQUA,

During its heyday in the 19th century, the chautauqua movement was one of the most important cultural institutions of its time, bringing educational and cultural opportunities to hundreds of thousands of people across the United States. Incredibly, after 120 years of sweeping changes in technology—giving virtually everyone access to nearly every imaginable cultural and educational opportunity—the Colorado Chautauqua remains as relevant as ever, attracting more than a million visitors each year with its beautiful trails, charming hospitality, spectacular entertainment and delicious dining.

Over the years, tents have evolved into cozy cottages and famous speakers and composers like William Jennings Bryan and John Philip Sousa, who once graced the Chautauqua Auditorium stage, have given way to modern-day activists and songwriters like Ralph Nader and Lyle Lovett—and more recently to the likes of Jon Krakauer and The Gipsy Kings—as the tradition continues with Chautauqua’s music, lectures and film series attracting tens of thousands of year-round visitors.

Of course, the thread that weaves through it all are the people who have cared for this special place over the years: the cottagers who return generation after generation, our friends in the preservation community, the volunteers who give so generously of their time, our partners in nearly every department in the City of Boulder, especially City Manager Jane Brautigam and City Attorney Tom Carr, and our dedicated staff and board members whose contributions over the years have made Chautauqua a historical and cultural resource for the region, as well as a nationally-recognized heritage and cultural tourism destination.

So, as one person in a long line of stewards of this amazing place, I want to thank the many generous donors, sponsors and members who supported the Colorado Chautauqua in 2017, as well as our partners at the Scientific Cultural and Facilities District, the Colorado Music Festival, Z2 Entertainment, Three Leaf Concepts and all of the other local nonprofit organizations who forward the Chautauqua ideals of lifelong learning, love of nature, voluntary simplicity and music, oration and the arts. Together, I am confident we will find solutions to the challenges that lie ahead, including making Chautauqua more accessible, more sustainable and a place where people continue to explore the best of who we are as humans in this picture-perfect place.

Sincerely,

Shelly Benford
Executive Director
Colorado Chautauqua Association

ARTS & CULTURE

CCA's programming mission, and the very root of the Chautauqua ideal, is to bring a diverse offering of cultural and educational programming—including dance, music and the traditions of other cultures and demographics—to the Boulder community. From classical to popular music, silent films to modern dance, authors to actors, and science to theater, CCA delivered yet another season of diverse and quality entertainment.

AUDITORIUM

COLORADO MUSIC FESTIVAL

The Colorado Music Festival (CMF) celebrated its 40th summer of world-class classical music in 2017. An integral part of Chautauqua's summer programming, CMF hosts talented musicians from all over the country who come together for six weeks of dynamic classical performances.

THE 120th SUMMER SEASON IN THE AUDITORIUM

Named the best Summer Music Series in the Denver metropolitan area, Chautauqua's 120th Summer Series brought an eclectic mix of entertainers, including Blind Pilot, Punch Brothers, Lucinda Williams, St. Paul & The Broken Bones, The Gipsy Kings, Steep Canyon Rangers, TajMo: Taj Mahal & Keb' Mo' Band and many others. The recently announced 2018 summer series broke all CCA records for ticket sales and we look forward to another great season!

SILENT FILMS

In 2017, CCA celebrated 32 years of silent films, delighting film buffs and moviegoers of all ages. Featured films included "Peter Pan," "Sherlock Holmes" and "The Scarlet Letter," starring giants of the silver screen Lilian Gish, Charlie Chaplin, Buster Keaton, Harold Lloyd and Douglas Fairbanks. Films were accompanied by live music provided by the Mont Alto Motion Picture Orchestra, pianist Hank Troy or the Silent Cinema Trio.

DANCE

CCA's action-packed dance events included Block 1750's production of Murmuration, pairing musicians and dancers in unexpected combinations to celebrate the talent, creativity and diversity of the greater Denver area. Concluding its 46th season, Cleo Parker Robinson Dance Ensemble's "Romeo and Juliet" was a refreshing take on the classic, first performed as a ballet in 1938. Meanwhile, New York's critically-acclaimed dance troupe, Ballets with a Twist, "not your mother's ballet," served up "Cocktail Hour: The Show," an intoxicating mixture of original song, dance and style.

DOCUMENTARIES

Chautauqua highlighted local history with a screening of "Neva Romero: Jamas Olvidados," a documentary film about a 21-year-old University of Colorado undergraduate who was killed, along with two other Chicano activists, in a car bomb in May of 1974 at the Colorado Chautauqua. The documentary is the story of a group of committed young activists working toward social justice and one young woman's struggle to make a difference during a period of collective turmoil.

ARTS IN THE OPEN

For the outdoor enthusiast and playwright, Arts in the Open hit the trails with classic stories for the whole family, including "The Oddest Sea: Greek Gods & Giggles" and "The Hound of the Baskervilles: A Sherlock Holmes Adventure." Meanwhile, Public Works Theatre Company presented their popular productions, "Edwina the Great & Her Flea Circus" and "Flight of Fancy," fueling the imaginations of children with their tiny tales.

ARTS & CULTURE

Community House

Diverse, year-round programming in the Chautauqua Community House reflects the heart of the Chautauqua movement, offering inquisitive Chautauquans a space where stories of adventure, exploration and scientific marvels are woven together with musical offerings in an intimate atmosphere.

EXPLORERS

In its second season, the Explorer Series—dedicated to celebrating the spirit of human exploration on land, sea and in the air—captured stories of unique people who literally tested the boundaries of the earth, bringing back fascinating tales and lifechanging discoveries. Showcasing this spirit of adventure, speakers Conrad Anker, Lynn Hill, members of the Rocky Mountain Rescue Group and many others provided an intimate look at their amazing feats, from riveting stories of Himalayan mountain summits to heroic tales of harrowing rescues.

SPACE

The incredibly popular, always sold-out Space Series took audiences on a monthly voyage of discovery through the solar system and into the outer limits of space and time. From Orion to OSIRIS-REX to the 9th Planet, Boulder's most accomplished scientists led us through our solar system and beyond.

AUTHORS

Paying homage to the original Chautauqua Literary & Scientific Circle, the monthly Author Series presented thought-provoking writers whose books embody the spirit of Chautauqua. In 2017, authors included Adam Bradley exploring the poetic power of popular songs, John Gierach discussing the art of fly-fishing, and Ellen Mahoney sharing the story of Apollo 14 Astronaut Edgar Mitchell. Other authors included Heather Hansen, sharing tales of wildfires, seen through the eyes of the firefighters, Pam Houston reflecting on the trials and joys of life on the ranch, Florence Williams discussing nature's positive effect on the brain, and John Noltner urging us to rediscover the humanity that connects us all.

FILM

Throughout the year, filmmakers, screenwriters and producers convened at the Community House—sharing their work and gathering audience feedback during post-screening discussions. Documentaries explored the world's most remote mountain ranges, depicted the lives of reindeer herders in Finland, and detailed the inhuman endurance exhibited by a four-time winner of the Iditarod. Other films highlighted the story of how Curious George was created, the history of the sign painting industry, influential women artists of Colorado, and the legacy of Spock, played by iconic actor Leonard Nimoy.

MUSIC

Fans looking to experience music in the cozy atmosphere of the Community House, enjoyed the alt-country, Americana sounds of The Mulligan Brothers, bluegrass and acoustic folk band Blue Canyon Boys, acoustic fingerstyle guitarist Don Alder, and an evening of Bohemian-style jazz music from The Aaron Walker Quartet, as well as many other great musicians.

SPECIAL EVENTS

In support of our veterans and their families, CCA hosted Ben and Leticia Ward, retired U.S. Army veterans, who applied their military training and experiences to their agricultural aspirations, creating a small-scale intensive urban farm in Colorado.

HISTORY & INTREPRETATION

THIRD GRADE HISTORY FIELD TRIP

In 2017, CCA hosted approximately 180 third-grade students from Flatirons Elementary, Whittier Elementary and the Wild + Free homeschool group, an initiative designed to nurture young historians and create new stewards of Chautauqua. Students learned how this incredible place was almost lost and how it was saved, placed on the Register of Historic Places, and finally designated a National Historic Landmark. In coming years, CCA plans to expand this popular field trip, which was awarded a Local History Award from the Boulder Heritage Roundtable, to a growing list of schools in the Boulder Valley School District and beyond.

CULTURAL RESIDENCY

Since July 4, 1898, people have traveled from far and wide to experience Boulder's Chautauqua. Originally called the Texas-Colorado Chautauqua, the site was expressly chosen for its spectacular mountain setting and its health-giving environment. As cottages began to replace the original tent city, each cottage was built facing the center of the campus, rather than the views—a deliberate design, meant to foster interactions between neighbors and to perpetuate a community culture of educational, social and recreational experiences.

Today, that spirit continues. Each year, visitors from across the U.S. and around the world come to participate in the Chautauqua experience. Not only is staying in a cottage or lodge a fundamental element of the Chautauqua experience, but lodging revenue is the economic engine for CCA. Lodging revenues help fund preservation and maintenance activities, subsidize public programming and fund administrative costs. Nearly five dozen cottages, the Missions House and the Columbine Lodge are available for nightly rental year-round. Come and stay with us!

PRESERVATION & SUSTAINABILITY

Preservation and maintenance of Chautauqua's 68 historic buildings and 26 acres of grounds is a fundamental part of the Colorado Chautauqua Association's (CCA) daily stewardship activity.

BUILDINGS & GROUNDS

CCA invests approximately one million dollars annually in capital improvements and routine maintenance within the leasehold portion of the Colorado Chautauqua National Historic Landmark.

AUDITORIUM

For over a century, the Chautauqua Auditorium has held a special place in the hearts of performers and audiences. Each year, routine upkeep and scheduled capital improvement projects ensure this beloved building remains in top condition and ready to welcome visitors from around the world.

Thanks to a generous contribution from the Korff Foundation, CCA completed the second phase of a major seat rehabilitation project in 2017, which included the refurbishment of over 1,200 seats. Renovations will be completed in the spring of 2018, in time for the kickoff of our Summer Concert Series. To keep those beautiful new seats protected, CCA has applied for a grant from the State Historic Fund to help replace the Auditorium roof, now 26 years old.

COTTAGES & LODGES

In 2017, CCA purchased the Galey Cottage, one of the oldest cottages at Chautauqua. Rehabilitation of the cottage will commence in 2018, and by 2019 the Galey Cottage will serve as a multi-functional space designed to provide a smaller venue for more intimate gatherings. This key structure, located just south of the Auditorium, will now be preserved for generations to come.

ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY

Chautauqua's values of lifelong learning, love of nature and voluntary simplicity go hand-in-hand with environmental sustainability.

Committed to making the Colorado Chautauqua the most sustainable National Historic Landmark, CCA has made sweeping changes to the way we operate. We continue to explore strategies to conserve water and energy, divert waste from landfills and utilize earth-friendly products, all while preserving the visitor experience and the Colorado Chautauqua's unique, historic character.

COMMUNITY

OUTREACH & SUPPORT

In 2017, CCA provided reduced rates or free rentals for over 150 events in support of nonprofit groups, governmental entities and educational organizations, including Horner Laughlin Marketing, Crist Mortuary, Landmarks Board, Vail Resorts, Pipeline Deals, Carnegie Branch Library-Square Nails 2017, Chautauqua Cottage Association, City of Boulder, Colorado Music Festival, Sunday School, Bridge Club, American Music Research Center, Community Foundation, Watson Institute, Cultural Residency and the Rocky Mountain Climbers Club.

In addition, CCA provided complimentary tickets to ArtReach's Community Tickets Program and Circle of Care's Elder Enrichment program.

PARTNERS

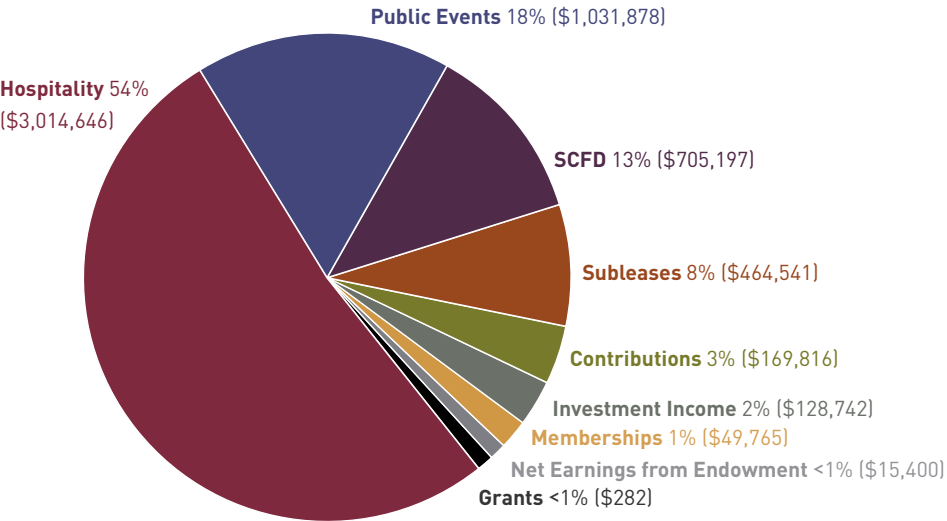

The Colorado Chautauqua Association is grateful for the many wonderful partnerships in 2017 that have allowed us to produce diverse programming for guests of all ages, including the Colorado Music Festival, Z2 Entertainment, Cleo Parker Robinson Dance Ensemble, Boulder Book Store, New Vista High School, Colorado Hip Hop Collective, Arts in the Open, Public Works Theatre Company, Stories on Stage, Southwest Research Institute (SwRI) and VIA Mobility Services.

Surplus funds replenish the operating reserve, fund capital improvements and are held for future investments. In 2017, CCA purchased a historic cottage that is a contributing structure to the National Historic Landmark and will provide more public access to the Chautauqua experience. This purchase comes from reserved funds and explains the decrease in cash from the prior year. CCA is also reserving funds to assist in making significant infrastructure improvements, including undergrounding power lines to reduce the risk of fire damage, improving storm water drainage to protect against flooding, enhancing campus lighting to increase safety, and upgrading our telecommunications systems to enhance operational efficiency and the guest experience at Chautauqua.*

Since 1898, visitors to the Colorado Chautauqua have found inspiration and enrichment from our educational and cultural programming, as well as respite from the hectic pace of daily life.

As a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization, the Colorado Chautauqua Association relies on the generosity of the community to help preserve the site and spirit of the historic Chautauqua and to enrich the lives of all who visit.

By becoming a partner with CCA, businesses provide invaluable support for the historic preservation and public programming mission of Chautauqua.

COMMEMORATIVE BRICKS

Contribute a piece of history to the Colorado Chautauqua by purchasing a commemorative brick, engraved with a personal message and installed along a path in the beautiful Centennial Garden. A commemorative brick is a perfect way to celebrate a birthday or other milestone, or to honor a special friend or family member.

TREE STEWARDS PROGRAM

The historic Chautauqua grounds are covered with almost 500 trees of every variety. Today, 30 percent of that tree canopy is threatened by the Emerald Ash Borer. To help preserve and sustain the natural beauty of Chautauqua for generations to come, Tree Steward contributions help plant new trees, treat and remove trees, or support other tree-related needs on campus.

In the spring of 2017, five new trees of varied species were planted with donations from the Tree Stewards Program. An additional seven trees were planted in the fall. To learn more about the Chautauqua Tree Steward Program, visit chautauqua.com/trees.

The Scientific and Cultural Facilities District (SCFD) is a unique collaboration among seven rural, suburban and urban counties encompassing the Denver metropolitan area. Since 1989, SCFD has distributed funds from a 1/10 of 1 percent sales and use tax to cultural facilities whose primary purpose is to enlighten and entertain the public through the production, presentation, exhibition, advancement and preservation of art, music, theatre, dance, zoology, botany, natural history and cultural history. The current budget for scientific and cultural organizations in the seven-county area exceeds $50 million annually.

The Colorado Chautauqua Association is proud to be a SCFD Tier II organization and grateful for SCFD's support. Thank you to the citizens of the Scientific and Cultural Facilities District and to the SCFD Board for their hard work in support of arts organizations!
