Boulder, Colorado – March 27, 2024 – The Colorado Chautauqua Association proudly announces its inaugural Flatiron Sounds Music Festival, set to electrify Chautauqua Park on Sunday, June 16th. This free, family-friendly event promises an unforgettable experience with live performances by local and national acts, a beer garden, artisan market vendors, and delicious local cuisine.

The iconic Flatirons will serve as the picturesque backdrop for the festival, where attendees can immerse themselves in the soul-stirring melodies of renowned acts Clay Street Unit, Two Runner, Jake Leg, King Cardinal, and Alexa Wildish.

In addition to the captivating live music, attendees will have the opportunity to explore an array of shopping opportunities from local retail vendors and indulge in culinary delights from esteemed food purveyors.

“We’re proud to offer our Boulder community a beautiful free festival at a beautiful location on a beautiful summer Sunday,” says Chautauqua’s General Manager of Public Events Danny Cohen. “Come out with your family and friends and bask in the glory of the Flatirons with free live music, food and shopping!”
