FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - Boulder, Colorado – January 23, 2025 – The Colorado Chautauqua announces its Concert For LA, a night of music and giving to benefit wildfire victims to be held on February 26 at 7:30pm in the historic Chautauqua Community House.

The concert received immediate support from a number of well-known names on the Colorado music scene and will feature performances from Jason Hann (String Cheese Incident), Megan Burt, Alexa Wildish, Derek Dames Ohl, Dechen Hawk, Caleb Schwing, Scott Bauer, members of Daniel Rodriguez, Jake Leg, Sturtz, Heavy Diamond Ring, The Living Room band, and more incredible local artists. Concert-goers can stay overnight in a Chautauqua cottage at a discounted rate. The event will also include a silent auction and additional ways to give back.

This event aligns with the altruistic spirit of the 126-year-old nonprofit Colorado Chautauqua and was conceived by Scott Bauer, Chautauqua Senior Manager, Event Programming and Operations. Bauer commented, “Los Angeles was my home for ten years and holds a very special place in my heart. Seeing how it impacted so many of my closest friends and family moved me to try and help in any way possible. I’m so thrilled that the local music community has been eager to support in the same way, and I’m looking forward to an incredible show!”

Ticket and lodging proceeds from this event will support those impacted by the devastating Eaton Fire, with funds going to the Eaton Fire Recovery and Relief Fund, through the Pasadena Community Foundation.
